

ANTI-LYNCHING BILL IS READY FOR CONGRESS

Voters Urged To Communicate With Members Of Congress In Its Favor

NEW YORK CITY, July 30.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York, has issued a statement urging every colored man and woman in the United States, as soon as it is announced that the Dyer bill is reported to Congress, to telegraph to his or her representative in Congress urging passage of the federal anti-lynching bill introduced by Representative Leonidas C. Dyer of Missouri. There is every prospect that the bill for which the Association has been fighting for more than a year will soon be reported out of Committee, and will be ready for consideration by the Congress.

As early as January, 1920, representatives of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People attended the hearings of the bill in Washington. The bill at that time was not reported out, but a new bill was introduced by Mr. Dyer in May; was favorably reported, and was placed on the calendar of the House of Representatives a few days before the adjournment of the 66th Congress. It is substantially the same bill which is now before the House Judiciary Committee. The bill provides:

That the putting to death within any state of any person within the jurisdiction of that state by a mob or riotous assemblage of three or more persons openly acting in concert, is an offense against the United States; that every participant in such a mob shall be guilty of murder and liable to prosecution in a District Court of the United States; that every county in which such murder occurs shall be fined $10,000, recoverable in a United States Court; that every state or municipal officer who neglects all reasonable efforts to protect his prisoners shall be liable to prosecution in a District Court of the United States, and may be punished by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by fine not exceeding $5,000, or both.

Great opportunities come to those who make use of small ones. Occasionally a man, like a mule, puts his best foot backward.

PUBLIC LIFE CO. GIVES BANQUET TO EMPLOYEES

A short time ago the general manager of the Public Life Insurance Company promised District No. 8 of the company, located at 3902 State St., one of its several branches in the city and composed largely of colored stockholders, that if they won the contest then in progress, it would reward the winners with a fine chicken dinner and "all the trimmings."

Both parties kept their word. Number 8 by winning and Mr. Clover by furnishing a fine repast. Each member of the winning team was allowed to invite two guests. Accordingly, on Thursday evening, July 21st, the hosts and guests assembled in the halls of the company district No. 8 Branch at 3902 S. State St., to enjoy the prize and extend good cheer to the friends of the prize winners.

Judging by the number present and the pleasure and enjoyment registered by those who were fortunate enough to be present, the evening's entertainment was a glorious success. The company, its general manager, and its District No. 8, underestimated its number of friends and well-wishers, workers and partisans, for the seating capacity was greatly overtaxed and to the great regret of all the sponsors many were required to be served at a second series of tables which were hastily provisioned and everyone ultimately taken care of.

Subsequent comment speaks glowingly of the affair as a grand success. What is known as District No. 8 of the Public Life Insurance Co. is the Company's Branch located in its own building, 3902 S. State St. at the southeast corner of 39th St. The district's headquarters is a veritable beehive of industry and enthusiasm. Each of the agents, all of whom are stockholders in the company, vying with each other in the pride of production, sincerity and quality of work and loyalty to the company, all of which is jealously guarded by each individual and by the district agency as a whole.

The Public Life Insurance Company is a Legal Reserve Old Line Life Insurance company, incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois and has deposited with the State Insurance Department over one hundred thousand dollars in gilt edge securities for the protection of its policyholders. It has the largest number of stockholders of any Legal Reserve Old Line Life Insurance Company in the world, and prides itself on the fact that all of its stockholders are active in the work—both productive and interest.

BUILDS $10,000 FUR BUSINESS FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE TRADE

August 1st, E. K. Settles will open a $10,000 fur business at 3511 Grand Blvd. When he throws his doors open to the public he will have completed the first lap in a successful business career.

A year ago he entered the fur business with very little capital and no business location. He sold furs from house to house, carrying his samples with him in an ordinary suit case. By perseverance and close adherence to fair and honest business methods he built up for himself a large patronage, a mute evidence of which can be seen when he opens his large stock of furs for public inspection.

Settles will open his business with an August Reduction Sale, at which fine furs can be bought at a 40 per cent reduction. All who wish to avoid the high prices prevailing in winter should take advantage of this sale. He has on exhibition all sorts of mink, seal, and squirrel furs, capes, coats, neckpieces, and stoles.

Settles is well known in the city, having conducted a tailoring business at 65th St. and St. Lawrence Ave., and having been connected with the Woodlawn Fur Co., 1020 E. 55th St. He has been a resident of Chicago for fifteen years. He is an expert at repairing and remodeling.

His business will be conducted in connection with the hat shop of Mrs. William Bottoms, at the same address. It has a policy unsurpassed in its advantages and guaranties and through its desire to give its policy holders the highest grade of insurance and protection the company has dedicated itself to the slogan of "The company of endowments." Founded upon the basis of the greatest good for the greatest number, its progress has been phenomenal. It has been exceptionally fortunate in the selection of its risks as is witnessed by the small number of death claims. These were promptly paid, each being paid within twenty-four hours of receipt of the proper papers showing the inestimable value of the self-paying features of its policies. Each policy carrying as a part of the contract, a sight draft, payable through any bank, banker, or trust company, to the heirs immediately, the full face value of the policy, requiring no aid of any kind for the beneficiary to collect his money. This feature coupled with the additional advantages of their total disability and double indemnity clause, which all of their policies carry, makes their contract one which is absolutely impossible to beat.

WILLA JANE PERKINS

Mme. T. D. Perkins, of Denver, Colo., says her own and her baby's hair are the best possible advertisement of her work. Above is a picture of little Willa Jane Perkins, 9-year-old daughter of Mme. Perkins, who is in the city giving personal scalp treatments to women and children. She is also selling her matchless scalp preparations for cultivating, beautifying and growing the hair.

This picture shows the baby's hair when she was five years old. At the present time it is almost a yard long. No Irons Used. In her treatment Mme. Perkins does not use hot irons or straightening combs, but gives the hair a treatment which causes it to retain its natural appearance, but yet makes it soft and fluffy.

She has no agents, nor are her goods sold in any hair dressing parlors or drug stores. All her treatments are personally conducted. She has succeeded in cases where all others have failed.

While in Chicago, Mme. Perkins is located at the Idlewild Hotel, 33rd St. and Wabash Ave. Her office hours are 10 a. m. to 9 p. m., every day except Sundays and Mondays. All who wish to consult her for further information should call in person there. Those who live out of the city who wish information should enclose four cents postage for her book of testimonials.

Mme. Perkins' headquarters are in Denver, Colo., 4630 W. 35th Ave., where she can be located after leaving this city.
